Respect the rights of others online

I have the right to privacy

Growing up in a safe environment is a fundamental right for all

Human rights apply to both the online and offline worlds

Tolerance is an important attribute of online life

Sharing your thoughts, ideas and points of view with others online is important